MINOR MENTION.

N. Y. Plumbing Co.
New spring goods. Reiter's.
The Young Men's Democratic club holds a special meeting at their rooms this evening at 8 o'clock.

The board of trade is preparing to spend some money in advertising the many advantages presented by this city.

Work has been begun on the foundation of Hemmeyer's new hotel. Chris Stramb has the contract and is putting the work.

The switchman's last evening was a very pleasant affair and largely attended. Daily's orchestra furnished delightful music.

There was not a large audience to listen to the Welch sinners but the music was an enthusiastic one, and encores were numerous.

Hugh Thompson, who was convicted of bigamy, is out on bail of $1,500. Unless the motion for a new trial prevails, he will be sentenced on Saturday.

The marble tiling is being laid in the office of the Ogden house. The elevator will be in place as soon as it arrives.

The Council Bluffs Evening Herald has arranged its financial matters so as to resume publication and continue the publication of its paper, without missing an issue.

The effort to re-elect C. J. Beckman as poll tax collector is commendable. The one-armed veteran has served the public as efficient officer of the city ever had in that place.

Some of the water pipes in Bayliss park were burst by being frozen in the cold weather, and have to be replaced by new ones before the thirty months come.

The ashes have actually been taken out of the alley between Main and Pearl streets. Many frequenters of that alley still wobble, however. They are probably not used to it yet.

All the cases of Rogers' statutory, which were shipped from New York, for the P. E. O. entertainment, Thursday night, arrived yesterday. Mr. Rockwell generously tendered the ladies the use of his teams to bring them to the open house.

Tommy Brooks and Jack Larkins sparred four rattling three minute rounds with four ounces gloves, at the "Omaha" last evening, in the presence of almost twenty friends. Brooks surprised all with his science and agility, and kept Larkins decidedly busy.

A party of 300 Boston excursionists, who have been visiting California, last evening passed eastward over the Chicago & Rock Island. It was a special vestibule train, an elegant one, and went out under the management of Jerome McClinton, Mr. Stevens' able assistant.

Frank Cook, with commendable enterprise, secured Charles Dickens for an evening at this place, guaranteeing the expenses. Expecting that the effort would be appreciated sufficiently to cause the house to be filled. His balance sheet shows that it cost him $40 to hear Mr. Dickens read.

Six girls were put to work yesterday learning to run the machines in the knitting factory. They made very good headway, and will be able in a few days to turn out first class work. New operatives will be added as fast as possible, and it is probable that all the machines will be running inside of a month.

Marshall Guanella left for Denver yesterday morning to bring back the forger, W. P. Talbot. After his departure a telegram was received from that city saying that the prisoner would be held until his arrival if he was coming immediately. An answer was forwarded that an officer would be there this morning.

New lockers have been put into the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium for the use of the patrons. They are ten in number and will accommodate forty gymnasts. The addition of these lockers is a great improvement to the appearance of the gymnasium, and does away with the old practice of leaving exercising suits in every corner.

Dalby's full band has been secured by the Independent hose team, and will make a grand parade on the evening of May 1 before opening the May Pole in the Masonic temple. The orchestra will consist of ten pieces. The boys are going to great expense and their efforts will result in one of the grandest balls of the season.

Dr. Seibert left for Cedar Rapids last night in the interest of the boat club. An earnest effort is being made to have the annual state regatta held at Lake Manawa. There are ten clubs in the association and five of these are already in favor of holding it here. It would be impossible to find a more desirable place, and it is hoped that another vote will be secured, securing for this place a very important sporting event.

THE CITY'S LONG TIME LOCK.

An Absent Alderman Causes Another Postponement.

MORE STREET PAVING ORDERED.

The Police Find Light Work—The Jury View the Alleged Outrage Doubtfully—Points to Build—Personal.

The Deadlock Unbroken.

The session of the school board, last evening, was held with closed doors. Notwithstanding this it is known that in the matter of choosing plans for the proposed school building no decision was made. The vote stood 3 to 3, the same as at the meeting of the board on the 11th inst. The board had taken the original plans away, and last evening submitted entirely new ones. Upon the question of continuing these the board were a unit against. A majority of the board concede that the plans of Allen &amp; Bell are suitable to the location while the others are not, but why they "hang" and what there really is to hang to, no one can say.
